

Royal Commission Information submission on DV.

Thank you for the opportunity for victims to have a real voice. A true measure if they chose to submit information or can have a voice while living with an abuser which is very difficult due to being monitored.

I have been abused; I now know the red flags very well. I am completely free yet there is. A reason for this in a profound way this is why I am writing this letter to you for the solution. That works. 100%

Abuser:. The charters of these types are very much the same... examples of smearing, triangulation, control, charming for manipulation and many more traits.

The victims: Feel brain fog, Confused, Self reflective and confused on their identify and so much more that is not healthy in any way.

Police reporting :

I went to the police station over 5 times with only one report being made and the police did not escalate anything not even when I gave them the stalking “tile” tag he put in my car that my mechanic found wrapped in plastic. The police just took the item and some notes... The support was zero...

After I FLED my home with the ex partner ([REDACTED]) - has records of his being abusive to other ex's through police reports I didn't know prior to being with him as an option.

I assure you the reports by me, other 2 women have given very minimal information on the terror that had gone through. The police files are not a true sense on the full impact.

Short version of the experience:

This is not base on me typing a detailed war stories this is for me to express how ineffective and lack of healthy outcome through the system is lacking in many ways.

I had been projected on with many false accusations of have sex with other men, paranoid while taking a long shower, accused of hidden messages with my phone. Stalking with a device on my car were he then visits people I was with to manipulate how great he was and I was the narcissists. (Projection), stop y car in peak hour traffic with putting the hand break on while I was driving – he fled the scene the police car across the road had no one I could find to help me.. controlling financially was another aspects and yes very common trait of control or if they are very generous, they are again using it as a manipulation and control to manipulate how great they are to the world while abusing at home. The list can go on....

What I tried:

- 1) 2x I saw 2 DV counselling while with him, She did have experience and knew it was an abusive relationship yet she did try to give him a way to heal yet these types don't have the capacity or desire to heal it's about narcissistic supply . The system is miss lead by this who choose to believe they can be fixed.. No they cannot. They will ACT like it and char the heck of you yet the actions wont match .

This never works, sorry to burst the bubble the solution below will explain why.

- 2) 1x Saw with him a Male psychologist again thought he could be fixed and gave him exercise, when we talked about how to resolve the abusive side (not in those words yet explained the mindset of the ex while the ex was there as a couples therapy after one session – not a smart move with an abuser in play) the psychologist said after the question about what to do with the abusers abusive mannerism he said “ I cant help with that” this ended out session and I walked out.
- 3) 2x DV orientated Psychologist after leaving. The talking didn't help the strategies did not help.. it may be soothing for a short time but aftershock. PTSD was huge and the rest My soul was raped. I said to one of the Psychologist “ you know that if you have any wounds the abuser will find them and use them against you, even as a therapist” she said “ Yes I know”. By then I had already started a programme that SETS YOU FREE and gave her the details to share with her clients. She was very impressed and I didn't need to seen anyone again and focused on the solution which was the programme that I will mention below... This is profound and is the only way to FULLY set out soul free.

Solution That really works:

Narcissistic Abuse Recovery Programme.

Profound

This is the only solution I know the government has to follow certain criteria's Yet I assure you that as a high suggestion give ALL victims for free this programme while they try and get out or try and get safe from these predators.. I live a life full of authenticity and am not afraid if I see him or nay abusers

Why ? because I upshifted my fears in such n empowered state these types feed off fear .. they now run from me.

The toll of narcissistic abuse is high. If you've been a victim you might feel as if your soul has been stolen and find it nearly impossible to function day-to-day, much less imagine how to go about rebuilding your life.

In desperation, you may start researching narcissism and try to learn everything there is to know about the disorder and tactics for responding to the abuse. Or, you might find a therapist and launch into talk therapy as a way to cope with the trauma you're experiencing. Others may read books, listen to podcasts, seek advice from trusted friends or clergy, and even begin relying on medication to attempt to alleviate their suffering.

When these remedies produce little to no results, it can be devastating and leave many wondering if recovery from narcissistic abuse is even possible.

Yet, healing and recovery from narcissistic abuse isn't only possible, it's probable! When you understand that the key to recovery isn't external and outside of you. It's actually reliant on turning inward and starting to heal for real from the inside out!

No matter how challenging your circumstances, how old you are, whether you are still in connection with the abuser, or how much you've lost as a result of abuse. And regardless if the narcissist was a romantic partner, family member, professional contact or organization - you can heal, rebuild your life and thrive after narcissistic abuse.
